“Five More Minutes PSA” :60

[vocals] “It’s like we just arrived.”

Michael: I’m here today because of Tanya’s relentless efforts in trying to get me healed.

When I came back from the war, I became a homeless Veteran.
I was barely hanging on by a thread.

The one thing that was constant for me was music. Music led me to Tanya.

Normally, with a Veteran, we think we can solve everything.
The truth of the matter is, we cannot.

Tanya: I just knew that something was different, something was off.
I let him know that he wasn’t alone. There are people that love him.

Michael: She says, “Michael I know you’ve got a plan to take your life today, but if you give just five more minutes to love you...”

[vocals] “Five more minutes. Five more minutes. I need five more minutes to love.”

Tanya: Michael has actually taught me what it looks like to accept help.
